The Northwestern University Office of Fellowships is pleased to announce numerous fellowship opportunities with application deadlines in early 2016.

If you would like to meet with an adviser to go over program details or review application materials, please email the appropriate staff member for an appointment.

Erasmus Mundus scholarships and fellowships for graduate study during academic year 2016-2017 are open with most deadlines in January. Check individual programs for specifics. Campus contact: Elizabeth Lewis Pardoe e-pardoe@northwestern.edu.

Herbert Scoville Jr. Peace Fellowship provides recent college and graduate school alumni the opportunity to gain a Washington perspective on key issues of peace and security. Campus contact: Jason Kelly Roberts jason.roberts@northwestern.edu. National application deadline: January 4, 2016.

New York City Urban Fellows Program combines work in mayoral offices and city agencies with an intensive seminar series that explores current urban issues that impact public policy. Campus contact: Jason Kelly Roberts jason-roberts@northwestern.edu. National application deadline: January 8, 2016.

Yenching Academy offers an elite interdisciplinary China studies experience for future global leaders. As a prestigious college within Peking University, the Yenching Academy prepares a diverse group of international and Chinese students for tackling the most challenging issues facing the world. The Academy provides a competitive postgraduate scholarship that covers tuition and fees, accommodation, living costs, round trip airfare to Beijing, medical insurance, and field studies costs. As a partner institution, NU may nominate students and alum for this prestigious award, advancing them to the interview stage of the selection process. Campus contact: Amy Kehoe amy.kehoe@northwestern.edu. Campus application deadline: January 10, 2016.

The Rangel (January 13), Pickering (January 15), and Payne (January 19) Fellowships seek to attract U.S. citizens interested in pursuing careers in the Foreign Service. Women, members of minority groups historically underrepresented in the Foreign Service, and students with financial need are encouraged to apply. Awards include funding for graduate school, summer internships, and professional development. Campus contact: Amy Kehoe amy.kehoe@northwestern.edu.

Emerson National Hunger Fellows Program is a social justice program that trains, inspires, and sustains leaders. Fellows gain field experience fighting hunger and poverty through internships in community-based organizations throughout the US, and through internships in Washington DC. Campus contact: Jason Kelly Roberts jason-roberts@northwestern.edu. National application deadline: January 13, 2016.

Projects for Peace offers a $10,000 grant for a summer project with a nonprofit focused on some dimension of enabling peace in a global world. At Northwestern, the Buffett Center and the Office of Fellowships work together to facilitate the grant process. First-year students, sophomores, and juniors are eligible. The application may be found here. Campus contacts: Amy Kehoe amy.kehoe@northwestern.edu and Patrick Eccles patrick.eccles@northwestern.edu. Campus application deadline: January 15, 2016.

U.S. Teaching Assistantships at Austrian Secondary Schools provides college graduates from the US with an opportunity to work as secondary school teaching assistants in communities all over Austria. Campus contact: Amy Kehoe amy.kehoe@northwestern.edu. National application deadline: January 15, 2016.

DAAD RISE (Research Internship in Science and Engineering) offers undergraduate students from North American universities the opportunity to complete a summer research internship at top German universities and research institutions. Students are matched with a host university or institute according to their area of interest (biology, chemistry, physics, earth sciences, engineering, or a closely related field). German language is not required and the working language will be in English. Campus contact: Stephen Hill s-hill@northwestern.edu. National application deadline: January 15, 2016.

Boren Scholarships provide funding opportunities for U.S. undergraduate students to study less commonly taught languages in world regions critical to U.S. interests and underrepresented in study abroad, including Africa, Asia, Central and Eastern Europe, Eurasia, Latin America, and the Middle East. The countries of Western Europe, Canada, Australia, and New Zealand are excluded. Boren Scholars represent a vital pool of highly motivated individuals who wish to work in the federal national security arena, broadly defined. In exchange for funding, Boren Scholars commit to working in the federal government for at least one year after graduation. Campus contact: Stephen Hill s-hill@northwestern.edu. Campus deadline: January 25, 2016.

The Beinecke Scholarship is the last humanities/arts/social sciences scholarship left standing! The Beinecke awards $34,000 to 20 juniors (or students in year 4 of a 5-year program) nationwide for a graduate degree in the humanities, arts, or social sciences. NU may nominate ONE person to compete. The caveat: history of significant financial need required. Campus contact: Sara Anson Vaux scv@northwestern.edu. Campus deadline: January 27, 2016.

Josephine De Karman Fellowship awards eight fellowships nationwide to intellectually accomplished, dead-serious future academics who are either juniors/in year 4 of 5, or grad students in their penultimate year. Grad award: $22,000; undergrad: $14,000. Campus contact: Elizabeth Lewis Pardoe e-pardoe@northwestern.edu. National application deadline: January 31, 2016.

DAAD RISE Pro offers summer research internships in Germany to Master’s and Ph.D. students from North America at companies and non-university research institutions with strong relations to industry. The program is open for students in the field of biology, chemistry, physics, earth sciences, engineering or a closely related field. Funding is possible for a period of three months in summer or fall. German language requirements vary according to the internship placement. Campus contact: Stephen Hill: s-hill@northwestern.edu. National application deadline: January 31, 2016.

DAAD Undergraduate Scholarship supports study, senior thesis research and/or internships in Germany. The goal of this program is to support study abroad in Germany and at German universities. Preference will be given to students whose projects or programs are based at and organized by a German university. Scholarships are available either as part of an organized study abroad program or an independent study abroad semester or year. Contact Stephen Hill s-hill@northwestern.edu. Deadline: January 31, 2016.

William J. Clinton Fellowship for Service in India is a 10-month leadership fellowship that pairs a select number of young professionals with credible NGOs and social enterprises in India in order to accelerate impact and create effective projects that are replicable, scalable, and sustainable. Applicants must be between the ages of 21 and 34 and completed an undergraduate degree. AIF provides a round trip ticket to India, insurance coverage, and a monthly stipend to each Fellow. Campus contact: Amy Kehoe amy.kehoe@northwestern.edu. National application deadline: February 1, 2016.

Killam Fellowship The Killam Fellowships Program provides an opportunity for US undergraduate to spend either one semester or a full academic year as an exchange student in Canada. Students may participate in the program either as a direct exchange student or as a self-placed visiting student. All Killam Fellows are also eligible to apply for a mobility (in-country travel) grant. The idea of the mobility initiative is to allow students to undertake an educational field trip, providing the Fellows with the opportunity to gain a fuller understanding of the culture in Canada.

Campus contact: Stephen Hill s-hill@northwestern.edu. National application deadline: February 1, 2016.

Global Health Corps is mobilizing a global community of emerging leaders to build the movement for health equity. They place talented individuals from a wide variety of backgrounds in paid, high-impact roles in NGOs and government agencies in sub-Saharan Africa and the US. During the fellowship year, fellows collaborate, innovate, and create sustainable and impactful change. Applicants from a broad range of sectors and disciplines can apply for up to three positions that match their interests and skills, from project management to monitoring and evaluation, engineering, communications and more. Campus contact: Amy Kehoe amy.kehoe@northwestern.edu. National application deadline: February 2, 2016.

DAAD Study & Internship Program supports students to spend a full year studying and interning in Germany at universities of applied sciences. Two new programs offer shorter-term study and internship opportunities of 2-6 months. Research internships are available in a wide range of fields, from aeronautical engineering to logistics and management to nanoscience. Successful applicants to SIP are eligible for a DAAD Scholarship or a UAS7 Travel Scholarship. Campus contact: Stephen Hill s-hill@northwestern.edu. National application deadline: February 15, 2016.

James H. Dunn, Jr. Memorial Fellowship provides bright, highly motivated college graduates a unique opportunity to experience the operations of state government for one year. Campus contact: Jason Kelly Roberts jason-roberts@northwestern.edu. National application deadline: February 28, 2016.

The Benjamin A. Gilman International Scholarship aims to diversify the kinds of students who study and intern abroad and the countries and regions where they go by offering awards to U.S. citizen undergraduate students who are receiving Federal Pell Grant funding. Campus contact: Amy Kehoe amy.kehoe@northwestern.edu. National application deadline: March 1, 2016.
The Josephine De Kármán Fellowship for Undergraduates or Graduate Students

"The Josephine De Kármán Fellowship Trust was established in 1954 by the late Dr. Theodore Von Kármán, world renowned aeronautics expert and teacher and first director of the Guggenheim Aeronautical Laboratory at the California Institute of Technology, in memory of his sister, Josephine."

THE APPLICATION FOR THE 2016-2017 FELLOWSHIP IS NOW AVAILABLE!!!
WWW.DEKARMAN.ORG

NOMINATIONS NOT REQUIRED.
CONTACT ELIZABETH LEWIS PARDOE AT E-PARDOE@NORTHWESTERN.EDU

The Foundation awards eight fellowships annually
Graduate Award: $22,000.00 ~ Undergraduate Award: $14,000.00

Eligibility
Graduate Students in penultimate year of program
Undergraduate juniors or students in year 4 of a 5-year program

Qualifications

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Graduate Applicants</th>
<th>Undergraduate Applicants</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Outstanding letters of recommendation. Significant publications. Several chapters of dissertation completed.</td>
<td>Exceptional recommendations and grades; intellectual seriousness. Graduate level coursework. A compelling record of original research or scholarship.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

APPLICATION DEADLINE
Complete applications, including official transcripts and two letters of recommendation, must be received by the fellowship committee IN ONE PACKAGE postmarked no later than MIDNIGHT, JANUARY 31, 2016.

The Foundation will not consider late applicants.
Announcement of 2016-2017 award recipients will be made approximately APRIL 15, 2016.