OPEN-ENDED QUESTIONS

What are the primary strengths and weaknesses of the teaching assistant?

Comments
Eilidh was SO helpful.
Strengths: Offering example problems and teaching us how to think through them and making sure we understood the important concepts
Fantastic TA. Both in discussion sections and office hours Eilidh demonstrated tremendous mastery over the material, and the skill necessary to effectively convey these concepts to students.
Enthusiastic and helpful. She knows the concepts and can adequately answer any questions we have Great TA. Did her best to support the students.
Eilidh was amazing, knew her stuff and was able to explain it multiple different ways to help me understand—extremely helpful the entire quarter. Was super accessible in office hours, and really cared whether or not we understood the material, not just if we could get the assignment done. Offered a ton of office hours and was patient in helping us understand information each session. Genuinely the best, most helpful Econ or Math TA I've had at Northwestern.
She was really good at explaining stuff to the kids who didn't get it at first. Also was just really nice and kept people focused and was good at going through practice problems
Explained material well
She is great. Very good at being understanding of all questions and will always help you.
Eilidh was super helpful!
