Dean John H. Wigmore,
Northwestern University Law School,
Chicago, Ill.

My Dear Dean:

Enclosed find self-addressed stamped envelop for answer to the following quiz:

What portrait painters have given you and the school the best satisfaction? Where can they be reached, if you know?

Some of us are considering having a portrait made of Frederick W. Nichols, Superintendent of School District 76, Evanston, to be placed in the new Frederick Nichols Intermediate High School, Elmwood and Greenleaf.

And at the same time, can you give us some estimate as to the cost? Many, many thanks.

FPV:MS

Cordially yours,
W. Vose

P.S. I never was more disappointed in a portrait in my life than that of Mary Bartelme unveiled Thursday. There is something so eternally womanly and fine about Mary that I hoped to see some of it reflected on the canvass. It wasn't there.
That quiet-self-contained reserve of Mary was lacking. The right eye is a blurred thing as you approach it. Who, among the younger generation, knowing not our Mary as she has been known to us since the days of 194, could gather any part of the color and the flavor of the mind and the spirit and the soul of the woman from that canvass?

N.B. Just wondering whether you would have use and room in your library for a set of L.R.A.?
If so, I will gladly donate them to the library.
