Notice to Employers

About Unemployment

What Every Worker

SECURITY EMPLOYMENT DEPARTMENT
ILLINOIS IDES

name and address in the space below.

secure calendar days of separation. Enter the name of the employee's last known address within the work site. The publication should be mailed to the FRKJ or CCC. It is not excepted to provide copies of this publication to the employer for any reason.

For any reason, an employer is required to provide him or her with a copy of the publication.

When a worker is laid off for a period of seven days or more, or is separated from the payroll

for any reason, an employer is required to publish notice to the workers.

For information on your unemployment insurance claim,

please call 1-888-337-7234 or TD/TT 1-800-622-9434.
What to Bring

Information. Receipts of this pamphlet does not necessarily mean you are eligible. It's important to note that this information is subject to change and may vary. Be sure to check the most current version of this document before making any decisions.

When and Where to File

Contact your local office for further information or to schedule an appointment. Be sure to bring all necessary documents with you. You may be required to file a claim within 30 days of becoming unemployed. If you are self-employed, you must file a claim within 15 days of losing your job.

Who Qualifies for Unemployment Insurance

Unemployment insurance is a state-sponsored program that provides benefits to workers who are unemployed. To qualify, you must meet certain requirements. These requirements vary by state and may include factors such as the reason for your unemployment, the amount of time you have been employed, and your earnings history.

Unemployment Insurance

Unemployment Insurance is a state-sponsored program that provides benefits to workers who are unemployed. To qualify, you must meet certain requirements. These requirements vary by state and may include factors such as the reason for your unemployment, the amount of time you have been employed, and your earnings history.